

A Bulletin To Let Advertisement Will Rent It

AUCTIONS

WITTER BROS. Auctioneers
Office and Salesrooms, 15 Main St., Danvers, Conn.

60 HEAD — COWS — 60 HEAD
TUBERCULIN TESTED HOLSTEIN,
GUERNSEY AND ABERDEEN
COWS, AT

AUCTION
TUESDAY, NOV. 14, 1922, at 10 o'clock a. m., sharp.

On account of having an unusually large number of cattle on hand, in fact more than 100, consisting of 50 yearlings and 50 head of cows, I have or get suitable huts to care for them this winter. I will sell 40 head at public sale on the above date to the highest bidder. At my farm, known as the Luther Day place, located about six miles southwest from Putnam, Conn., and about one-tenth of a mile east from the first road leading out of Putnam, Conn., described as follows:

An extra parcel of land of high grade Holstein, Guernsey and Ayrshire cows, all young and mostly thoroughly tested, consisting largely of New milch

The head of the United Guernseys, including one decidedly attractive yearling bull representing the blood of one of the famous Sarda in New Jersey.

In the head of the finest grade Guernsey cows in the province of the country. If you are looking for this kind of thing, you will find it at all times spent here will be well worth while. Come, see them now, anyway.

Three registered Holstein cows, one lot of bucking calves, one lot of turkeys, one lot of another two pigs.

Terms of sale cash if decided; terms, postponed to first fair day after at the same hour. Catalogue will attend.

EDGAR POWSWORTH,
Pontreil Center, Conn.

BRIEF STATE NEWS

Brainerd.—Over 2500 cars showed at the annual bazaar which was given recently by Tablor Lutheran church.

Foreville.—George A. Carver was found dead in his home on Garden street in this town, Sunday morning.

Plainville.—The National Association for the Advancement of the Colored Race selected Mrs. Annie Baker, New Britain, as its president.

Westville.—The following permits were issued: N. Gandelman, frame garage, 26 Barnett street; Alvin D. Hattery, one-story frame house, 1877 Chapel street, $5,900.

Humburg.—Oscar A. Ely, one of the oldest residents in this town, died at his home here Sunday morning, at the age of 75 years. Mr. Ely was well known and a highly respected citizen.

Terryville.—Word has been received that the death in New York city of Mrs. Leverett Griggs, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Alice Abell. The body will be brought to Terryville.

Irriverton.—Miss Sarah Rogers is improving from her recent operation at the Gravelly Hill sanatorium. She has recently visited by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hankell and Mr. and Mrs. Burton Chapman of Torrington.

Hamden. The school board at its meeting received several sets of plans for the proposed four room additions to the Newhall and Church street schools and six sets of plans for a new school in the Spring Glen district.

Windsor. The Windsor Fire company at its annual meeting elected C. H. Goodrich president, and J. W. H. Smith, B. S. Carter, who has held the office

Saybrook Point.—The first initial meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held at Mrs. Robert Chamberlain's home. The following members were present from Portland and Crowneville: Miss Evelyn Robertson, of Portland convey those attending in her automobile.

Manchester.—Armistice Day celebrations this year will surpass that of any other year. The Army & Navy club is in charge of the celebration. Captain B. H. Stoughton announced that their mills will be closed Saturday and the Merchants association will close their stores between 11 and 2 o'clock.

It is easier to judge a "wh" woman if she doesn't say than by what she does.

THE HOPE OF THE WORLD

The war of 1914 laid half the nations of the world in the dust. Their homes, their industries, their peace must be restored by the rising generation. In the hour of need, mothers are called upon.

To make motherhood easier, to account for every baby a clean bill of health and a fair start in life—that is the problem.

Lodis E. Epsham's Vegetable Compound is an excellent medicine for mothers and for future mothers. Forty years' experience has been used successfully in all non-surgical cases of women's diseases.

AD TO BULLETIN

Enclosed ☐ and address ☐
mark X here

A close-up photograph of a metal surface, likely a microchip or sensor array. The surface is divided into a grid of small, raised rectangular features, possibly individual sensors or components. The metal has a slightly textured, brushed appearance. The lighting is even, highlighting the metallic sheen and the grid pattern.